

Frederick Henry Soldiers in War 1862

1. John Smith

John Smith was drafted into service at Norfolk Va. being drafted volunteered in his brothers place, was accepted, and ordered to report to Camp Springs. One time of his life time, he came to his brother Josiah to say goodbye. That was the last they ever saw or heard of him as he never returned from the war.

2. John H. Smith

He was drafted into the service, marched to Norfolk a distance of more than three hundred miles, served his time bravely, was honorably discharged, and walked back to his home in home, infected with the deadly malarial fever from which few of the mountaineers ever recovered.

The entire family was filled with the fever and three of his brothers and sisters, David, Nancy and Sally died one after the other. And his life the memories of this sad time coming over haunted his life.

3. William C. Coker, Captain - of Mill Point (original name - Coker, changed because of the pronunciation)

He was very popular with his soldiers because of his kindness to them. After the war, he went several times to the legislature, was County Sheriff, in later life moved to Tennessee.

8. William Groschen, son of John Groschen of Hunterville.

Returned from the war, settled on Brown's Creek, operated a sawing machine along with his farm.

9. Jacob Price Jr.

Served under William Henry Harrison in battle of Tippecanoe. He was with in Civil War and participated in the Spanish American war, 1898.

10. John William Price.

A surgeon on board ship in war of 1812, stationed near Norfolk, died on board ship, and so far as is known, was buried at sea.

(Taken from Hist. of Pocahontas - 1880)

the following is a partial list of the soldiers of the war of 1812, who lived in what is now Pocahontas County after the said war. This region was at the time of the war of 1812, under the regime of Bath County; some of these soldiers may have lived in other parts of Virginia, but spent their lives in Pocahontas County; However these soldiers had much to do with the early development of Pocahontas County.

The four McCarty brothers who were in the war of 1812 were the sons of Timothy McCarty, the Revolutionary War Soldier; of the four brothers enlisted only one of them returned to Pocahontas County -- he was Daniel McCarty-- to live; The rest either perished in the war, or went to Tennessee or Kentucky. Their home was on the Knappe Creek near Frost Pocahontas County West Va.

John Brown not being married volunteered in his brother Josiah Browns place, was accepted, but never returned; was supposed to have perished in the war.

The following is a partial list of the Revolutionary War Veterans who lived in Pocahontas County after the Revolutionary War, and spent part of their time in the County. This region was then under the regime of Augusta County, and some of the old soldiers removed to this section from Frederick County, after the war while Pocahontas was under the regime of Greater Bath County. However these pioneers soldiers have had much to do with the early development of Pocahontas County.

This is a list of the Old Soldiers of the Revolutionary War, who had their homes in the County and <sup>had</sup> very much to do with the development of the County.
There may be other Soldiers of the same War who were in this County but these are all the names that I can find available at the present time.
I hope that this ~~list~~ list can be printed along with the supplement of Soldiers.
I am trying to get the names of the Soldiers of the War of 1817, and the Mexican War. and Spanish American War.
